Tacchini (at) Clerkenwell Design Week
Design Fields, ground floor DF10

From 21st May till mid-June 2018 – leading Italian design furniture brand Tacchini, will celebrate its participation in Clerkenwell Design Week with a special display of novelty products at Silvera flagship showroom in Chelsea (241-245 King's Road, London SW3 5EL). The display will feature:

JULEP (upholstery seats) designed by Jonas Wagell — New 2018
A new family of upholstered pieces characterised by soft and enveloping shapes influenced by the 1950s Avant-Garde movement and refined by a contemporary, romantic, feminine allure. The series comprises of a sofa, an armchair, a chaise longue and an ottoman: their inviting appeal encourages cosy comfort and relaxation, making the Julep seating options ideally suited to contract venues as well as for home décor.

RITUALE (rug) designed by Umberto Riva — New 2018
Known as an architect and designer, Riva never tried to hide his fondness for art and painting. In his works, geometric patterns and colours intertwine, creating delicately beautiful abstract subjects, as in Rituale. Drawing upon the painting of the same name, the rug is completely hand made in Nepal, in keeping with an ancient, intricate wool-knotting process. The ultimate distillation of art, artisan craftsmanship and design.

SOAP (tables) designed by Gordon Guillaumier, 2017
Elegantly discreet occasional tables featuring soft shapes and rounded corners and the smooth luxury of the marble top. Available in Sahara Noir and glossy Calacatta white marble.
