

Parker

Designer: Lorenzo Bini
Year: 2023

Like “Orpheus” – the marble table born from the creativity of Lorenzo Bini – Parker takes up the indefinite shape of detail of Cy Twombly’s work but finds its own identity in the finishes. Here solid wood becomes the protagonist, suggesting the dimensions and offering unprecedented visible grains in the five legs obtained from two slightly staggered slats. Three elegant grooves are hidden under the edge of the top, three waves that are revealed only to the touch.
